

Bryan Gallyot, Master of Ceremonies

Voted “Best Local Personality” in the Pasadena Weekly’s 2008 & 2009 Reader’s Poll, Bryan Gallyot is known as "the best people-person in Pasadena." He has hosted major events including fundraisers for Food For Thought and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, as well as co-hosting the recent concert by the Spazmatics, held on the steps of the Pasadena Civic Auditorium. Bryan’s extensive experience in the hospitality and event industries has honed an outstanding natural talent for networking and creating community into a sharp and stellar ability to develop win-win business partnerships and develop lasting relationships. Noted for his ability create magical connections, Bryan has been a team member on literally hundreds of successful community functions in the San Gabriel Valley and throughout California, for groups including the AIDS Walk, NAACP, Jenna Coburn Foundation, AIDS Ride, Jerry’s Kids, California Philharmonic and the United Negro College Fund, creating a better quality of life for his community and raising hundreds of thousands of dollars for local nonprofits.