

Maestro Victor Vener

Victor Vener is a music director with vision and energy who also possesses the knowledge and experience necessary to create inspired concerts. Dr. Vener deftly entertains and informs the neophyte listener while still engaging and delighting the avid classical music lover. With a people oriented and approachable style, he encourages individuals of all cultures, personalities, ages and walks of life to feel comfortable enjoying classical music. Throughout his professional career, Maestro Vener has garnered a well-deserved reputation as a masterful music director who exudes infectious enthusiasm and wit on the podium, effectively merging entertainment with musical enlightenment. A recognized leader in the community, Maestro Vener has received official commendations from the United States Congress, California State Senate and Assembly and also the County of Los Angeles. For the past two years, he has been voted Best Local Musician in the Pasadena Weekly's annual Reader's Poll.